Re:    *United States v. Isaiah Moss, 19 Cr. 166 (VEC)

Dear Judge Caproni:

The Government writes to respectfully withdraw its motion for forfeiture of the defendant's bail bond, see Doc. No. 303, for the reasons set forth below.

On August 12, 2021, the Government moved to forfeit the defendant's bail bond because the defendant absconded from pretrial supervision on July 20, 2021, and failed to surrender on August 6, 2021, for service of the 84-month sentence the Court previously imposed. On August 13, 2021, the Clerk of Court served copies of the Government's motion, all supporting submissions, and the Court's order to show cause on the defendant's two sureties at their last known addresses, as required under Rule 46(f).

As the Government understands it, one of the defendant's sureties (his sister) received notice of the Government's motion to forfeit the defendant's bond and, thereafter, took affirmative steps to help persuade the defendant to surrender. On August 20, 2021, the defendant surrendered to the United States Marshal Service at 500 Pearl Street. The defendant was charged by complaint with bail jumping, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 3146(a)(2) & (b)(1)(A)(i), and detained on consent.

Because the defendant's sister promptly and successfully persuaded the defendant to surrender, the Government submits that the purpose of its motion has been served. Cf. Fed. R. Crim. P. 46(f)(2)(A) ("The court may set aside in whole or in part a bail forfeiture upon any condition the court may impose if...the surety later surrenders into custody the person released on the surety's appearance bond[.]").
